

U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission – Fast Track Recall with Health Canada

Release Date: November 9, 2023

Release Number:

Amer Sports Winter & Outdoor Recalls Ski Touring Bindings Due to Fall and Injury Hazards

Recall Summary

Name of Product: Armada, Atomic, and Salomon ski bindings

Hazard: The toe component of recalled ski bindings can fail, causing the ski boot to disconnect from the ski, posing fall and injury hazards.

Remedy: Replace

Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled ski bindings and return them to any authorized Armada, Atomic Ski, or Salomon dealer for a free inspection and a free replacement of the toe portion of the ski bindings, if included in the recall. Authorized dealers can verify if a binding is included in this recall based on its serial number. The serial number is only visible during disassembly, and the firm asks consumers to allow dealers only to disassemble the bindings. Consumers should not disassemble bindings on their own.

Consumer Contact: Amer Sports Winter & Outdoor Company toll-free at 833-944-1062 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. MT, email at recall-notice.en@armadaskis.com; recall-notice.en@atomic.com; or recall-notice.en@salomon.com, or online at <https://www.armadaskis.com/recall-notice>, <https://www.atomic.com/recall-notice>, or <https://www.salomon.com/recall-notice>.

Recall Details

Units: About 4,250 (In addition, about 1,446 were sold in Canada)

Description: This recall involves Armada, Atomic, and Salomon brand ski touring bindings. The ski bindings hold a consumer's ski boot in place on the ski. The brand name is printed on the heel of the ski binding. The recall includes the following brands and model names having the following serial numbers: serial numbers ranging from 22P00000 to 22P10531; 22P92954 to 22P99999, 23P10531 to 23P10886 and 230600000 to 230769999 are included in this recall. The serial number is only visible when the bindings are disassembled. Consumers should visit authorized dealers who will disassemble and verify if a binding is included in this recall. The only ski bindings included in this recall have gray springs in the toe component.
